Booking Terms and Conditions (Cricket World Cup 2007)

We ask that our passengers read these conditions carefully as these conditions are the basis on which bookings are accepted.

Responsibility

Total Sports Travel (hereinafter referred to as 'the company') acts as agent only in the arrangement of the flights, tours and other travel services requested. The Company is not a carrier or hotelier and does not own, manage, control or operate any transportation vehicle, hotel, restaurant or other service (collectively called 'the service suppliers'). All tickets, coupons, exchange orders, receipts and contracts are issued on the basis that the passenger's accept that the service supplier/s terms and conditions apply in all circumstances. The company is not responsible for any injury, loss, delay or irregularity, additional expense or liability, sickness or death caused to any person or property due directly or indirectly by the acts, omissions or default, negligent or otherwise, of providers of transport, accommodation or other services, or by force majeure or other events beyond their control howsoever caused or arising from but not limited to any act, neglect, default or otherwise or its servants or agents or resulting directly or indirectly from civil disturbance, wars whether declared or otherwise, fire, earthquake or flood, unusually severe weather riots, strikes, acts of God, incidents of the sea or air, acts of government or of any other authorities legally elected or de facto, breakdown in machinery or equipment, theft, pilferage, epidemic, quarantine, medical, customs or other regulations, delay or cancellation or changes in itinerary or schedules or overbooking, improper or insufficient passports or visas or other documents. The company reserves the right to cancel, amend or modify any of the arrangements contained in the itinerary, or part thereof confirmed to the passenger/s. If any further services (including optional tours) are arranged or provided by the company, it is accepted that they are being provided on the same terms and conditions as the conditions herein. The Company or supplier reserves the right to cancel a departure where minimum passenger numbers are required but not achieved or in the case of an airline where schedule changes or other reason prevent operation of their service/s. In such cases a refund may be made or an alternative itinerary offered to which all or remaining funds paid to the Company by the passenger/s will be credited. The Company will not have received payment until same is received, deposited and cleared with the company's bankers. This includes such air tickets and other documents which require issuance by a specific date which will be clearly indicated on the Company's confirmation and invoice to the passenger/s. Failure to provide the company with cleared funds by the due date will cause cancellation of relevant bookings which may also attract cancellation fees which will be due and payable to the Company by the passenger/s. The Company will be entitled to keep for itself any interest on monies paid to it, and to disburse such monies at its discretion in respect of the services to be provided (including forward exchange currency contracts taken out by the Company).

Australian GST

At the time of printing, the Australian Taxation Office considers that international travel does not attract GST, while wholly domestic travel to and within Australian states and territories does attract GST and such GST will be shown on the company's invoice. Should the Australian Taxation office impose or amend GST conditions, the Company will be obliged to abide by such amended regulations.

Prices for Travel Arrangements

All travel arrangements booked for the passenger/s have been based on costs at the time of booking and are subject to change in accordance with advice from the service suppliers regarding changes to airfares, fluctuation of exchange rates, increases levied by the service suppliers or variations in the itinerary caused by cancellation or curtailment of services or rescheduling. The passenger agrees to pay any such additional charges prior to departure and prior to ticketing time limits and travel departure date.

Reservations

Owing to the popularity of this event and the strict conditions imposed on us by the organizing committee payment terms for our tours will be as follows - deposit of 50% of total package price due on booking - and the balance 120 days prior to departure.

Cancellations and refunds - General

All deposits and further payments are non refundable. In no circumstances will any monies paid under this Agreement be refunded by the company to the Passenger. It is therefore strongly recommended that passengers take out suitable travel insurance including a clause covering cancellation penalties. Passengers will not be entitled to a refund for any unused services after commencement date of their trip.

General Information

Amendment Fees

An amendment fee of $100 per booking per amendment will be charged after the originally requested itinerary has been confirmed, in addition to any fees imposed by the service providers. Amendments requested after final payment has been made and travel documents have been issued can attract additional amendment fees and/or cancellation fees as levied by the airlines and service providers.

Additional Services

Charges such as passport fees, meals except as specified, excess baggage charges, gratuities, laundry, insurance, drink and other items of a personal nature are the responsibility of the passengers. Australian and overseas taxes and visa fees (if applicable) where pre payment is required will be shown as separate items on the invoice to the passenger/s.

Departure Taxes

These are detailed as a separate component of each package and may vary prior to departure

Baggage Allowance

Baggage allowances are as per airline regulation and will either be by weight and/or dimension depending on the route being flown. Passengers will be advised of the applicable baggage allowance when booking. Excess baggage charges are high and will be levied by the airline on check-in. The Company is not responsible for passenger/s baggage at any time.

Travel Insurance

Passengers are strongly recommended to take out suitable travel insurance covering at least medical and hospital expenses, loss or damage to baggage, cancellation and additional expenses. Passengers will be offered travel insurance products when booking.

Health Requirements

Passengers should consult their doctor or a travellers medical centre for advice on health requirements in areas covering their itinerary.

Travel Documents

Passengers must be in possession of a valid passport for overseas travel (valid for at least 6 months as at the conclusion of the trip) and the required visa/s. The Company can assist in obtaining the necessary visa/s at the applicable fees levied.

Disclosure of Personal Information

The passenger/s acknowledge/s that they will provide the company from time to time with information about themselves that is of a personal nature. The passenger/s consents that the Company may use such personal information to make and complete airline bookings and other travel related arrangements on their behalf.

Carrier Responsibility

The airline/s do not represent themselves as being contracted with any purchaser of flights and/or package tours from the Company or as having any other legal relationship with any such purchaser.

Possible Changes to Itinerary:

Occasionally there may be unforeseen changes in transportation and event schedules which are beyond our control. We will make every effort to keep our itineraries as shown on your itinerary. However, the right is reserved to make changes if they become necessary.
